How To Protect Your Family and Loved Ones
From Expensive, Unexpected Funeral Costs

PICTURE THEIR FACES

The day has come to say 'goodbye.'

Your family, friends, loved ones have gathered together. They're heartbroken, devastated...grieving. Hugging and comforting one another. Struggling to smile through the tears. They just can't believe you're... gone.

WILL YOU LEAVE THEM WITH CHERISHED MEMORIES... OR EXPENSIVE FUNERAL BILLS?

How would you like them to remember you?

...as someone who left behind a legacy of lasting memories or as someone who burdened loved ones with expensive funeral bills they can't afford.

The average modestly priced funeral costs $10,000 dollars. Would you want to inherit that? Does your spouse have that kind of spare money lying around? Can your children afford that? Wouldn't that money be better spent on your kids, your grandkids, their college...?

That's why there's Final Expense insurance.

It provides essential coverage that protects loved ones from your funeral expenses, plus unpaid medical bills, even personal loan debt you may leave behind.

Final Expense is a very affordable, very effective end-of-life insurance designed to cover the costs of your passing. It does your family a tremendous favor.

9 SMART REASONS FOR FINAL EXPENSE

1. FUNERAL COSTS ARE INEVITABLE

The simple fact is we all have a funeral bill with our name on it. It includes expenses for the funeral home, your casket or urn, your burial plot, embalming, transportation...the list goes on. That's why the average modest funeral is nearly $10,000 these days, no matter where you reside. And with prices always rising...imagine what your funeral will cost years from now. Even if you simply choose "cremation" there are still fees to be paid. Your funeral bill may not arrive soon. But it WILL arrive, and it must be paid. Will you pass all those costs along to your family to be paid in one painful sum, immediately? Or will you pay for your own funeral, comfortably over time, as little as $1 a day?

2. PAYS FASTER THAN TRADITIONAL LIFE INSURANCE

Traditional life insurance can be very helpful to your spouse or family after you pass away. But there's one BIG PROBLEM: it can take months to pay out. Even straightforward claims require clear documentation, accurate information, you have to deal with the insurance company...there is nothing fast about it. That leaves your spouse and family exposed and vulnerable to your funeral and burial expenses which must be paid in advance. Final Expense insurance pays out much faster. In fact, claims can be approved in as little as 72-hours. Fast enough to beat the funeral bill. Without having to touch the nest egg.

3. HELP WITH MEDICAL BILLS

It's not uncommon to pass away with expensive, outstanding medical bills. A Final Expense policy can provide money to pay that debt.

4. GIVE YOUR LOVED ONES FINANCIAL SUPPORT

Not all money from your Final Expense plan must go to funeral costs. Your loved ones may need to take time off from work to mourn your passing. They could lose income as a result. Final Expense coverage gives them a financial cushion to cover lost wages... so they can focus on mourning you.

9 SMART REASONS FOR FINAL EXPENSE

5. PAY PERSONAL LOANS

A Final Expense policy can also help pay off any personal loans you may have taken out while alive. Loans your family shouldn't be responsible for paying back.

6. IF YOU'RE TOO OLD TO QUALIFY FOR LIFE INSURANCE

What happens if you're too old to qualify for traditional life insurance? What if you can't afford it? In that event, many experts consider Final Expense coverage to be the best solution. It's easier to qualify for. You don't have to be young or in excellent health. It's much more affordable...

7. IT COSTS AS LITTLE AS $1/DAY

Final Expense is very affordable. Plans come as low as $29.95 a month. That's $1 a day. That dollar buys a lot of financial protection for your family.

8. AN UNEXPECTED GIFT

Once Final Expense covers the costs of your passing, the remaining money can be gifted to the loved ones of your choosing.

9. APPLYING FOR A POLICY IS EASY

This type of insurance is typically easy to obtain, and you can choose a policy as little or big as you'd like.
